

Artists Statement for artwork collection 2006-2007 - "Dreams have no Titles"

My show is based on the feminine predicament...my aim in painting the many women in iconic notions is to transform the complexities of the figure into harmonies of simplified forms, revealing the innate reality, the life force, the spirit, the inherent symbolism and the underlying remarkable structure - to give emphasis to form with the greatest clarity.

---